

Mutual NDA

Two-way confidentiality, obligations & signatures

OnlineSignatureForms.com: Free fillable template

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement is made between the two parties named below, each of whom may act as both a Disclosing and a Receiving Party. Both agree to protect the confidential information defined here and to use it only for the stated purpose. Confidentiality terms vary by state — replace this placeholder with wording reviewed by your attorney for your deal.

Parties

First party name

Second party name

First party address

Second party address

Definition of confidential information

This definition applies equally to both parties — product plans, financials, technical data, customer information, and anything marked confidential.

Mutual confidential information

Purpose & obligations

Purpose of the disclosure / discussions

Obligations of both parties

Exclusions (public, prior, or independently developed)

Term

Term / duration

Return or destroy by

Signatures

Both parties sign and date. Include printed names.

First party signature

Date

Printed name

Second party signature

Date

Printed name