Release statement

I grant permission to record video of me and to use, edit, reproduce, distribute, and publish that footage, including my name and likeness, in the project described above and across the channels, territory, and duration stated. I understand I will not receive payment unless noted, and I release the organization from claims arising from this use. Replace this placeholder with grant and release language reviewed by your attorney for your project and jurisdiction.

I have read and agree to the grant and release above.
